Alpha Romero Car Show

On Saturday, September 26, from 10 am to 2 pm the Alpha Romero Owners Club USA will present its National Convention (Concorso d'Eleganza) with a car show in Huntsville Park. The Car Show is free and open to the public. A Concorso d'Eleganza is a prestigious judged automotive competition rooted in Italian tradition, literally a "contest of elegance." At an Alfa Romeo convention, it's the centerpiece event where owners present their meticulously restored or preserved Alfas to a panel of judges, who evaluate originality, condition, history, and visual harmony. It's part car show, part living museum. From pre-war 6C grand tourers to swooping Giuliettas and iconic 8Cs, each entry tells a chapter of Italian automotive history. Beyond the trophies, it's a gathering of passionate enthusiasts who share stories, knowledge, and an unabashed love for the most emotional cars ever built.

If you care about beauty, engineering, and heritage, you belong there.
